"Guitar Hero Weekend"

Announcer: Brad Gibb

Date: April 10 – 11, 2010

[ID 1] These guitar heroes play with 6 strings, not 5 buttons. You might want to take notes.

[ID 2] Hey, they may have not saved a baby from a burning building but they're hero's too.

[ID 3] Fret masters, gods of the git box. Call them what you want but we think guitar hero is easier to remember.

[ID 4] They've got super power and larger than life solos. Moving stage moments and mean riffs.

All without the cheesy capes.

[ID 5] These are our heroes without comics books, action figures or tight underwear.
